PERSONAL STATEMENT

- I'm Fifth Semester B.A LL.B student at Lloyd Law College, Greater Noida (Uttar Pradesh) and I'm seeking an internship where I can learn and polish my drafting and research related work in the field of Public International Law, specifically Human Rights.
- I believe my background and interests are well suited to the work mentioned. As an undergraduate, I have done various research on topics such as Corporate liability in individual Criminal responsibility under ICC, Scope of Climate refugees under Refugee Convention, Banning of Conversion therapy, LGBTQIA+ rights, Interests of Justice dimension under Rome Statute.
- A challenging work environment that provides me good growth prospects. Looking forward to a career in an organization that provides me opportunities to explore and hone my skills, abilities, knowledge, and experience to the maximum extent and offers scope for professional and personal development.
- I identify myself having a growing interest in studying corporate laws and intellectual property laws. Hence, seeking opportunities in the area.
