Dear Madam/ Sir,

I am writing today as an applicant for your Organisation for the position of Corporate Lawyer, or Law officer. I am confident that as a Corporate Lawyer, as well as my experience in Multi-National Companies, makes me an excellent fit for this position.

As my attached resume outlines, I have 5 years of experience working in the Corporate Sector, As well as I have been practicing as an independent Lawyer at a legal Law firm RNG Consultant Private Limited. I have acquired knowledge in Cybercrime cases related to the company, Intellectual Property Law, Contract drafting, and arbitration, as well as dealing with other Civil matters at High Court. My success rate in my field is unquestionable and have always delivered positive results. I am confident I can achieve similar results for your organization. I am determined, dedicated, and hardworking along with patience is one of the attributes that I believe are important to your organization. I am looking for an opportunity to provide your organization with any kind of legal needs if required while offering expertise and knowledge.

I greatly appreciate you taking the time to consider my application. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you further regarding how I can contribute to the continued success of your good office. Thank you again.

Regards,

Sukla Goswami
