PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

With a BAR License a solid educational foundation and a keen interest in corporate and commercial law, I am a motivated law graduate determined to make a significant contribution to the corporate landscape. I am adept at Trademark Searching, filling Indian and US-based, responses of OA, legal research, contract drafting, and negotiation, any kind of legal notice. My professional journey includes roles at NPPD Care, where I excel in Contract Drafting, and Team Work, and at The Amikus Quraie, where I honed my legal research and writing skills. Under the guidance of a senior advocate, I delved into the complexities of the SARFAESI Act. I have further expanded my expertise with involvement in various projects related to legal drafting, judgment writing, and content creation, showcasing my adaptability and commitment. My participation in moot court competitions and legal quizzes demonstrates my analytical and reasoning capabilities. Additionally, I am pursuing a specialized Trademark Program certification to enhance my IP knowledge. My academic journey at Durgapur Institute of Legal Studies and my linguistic proficiency and marital status reflect a holistic and dedicated individual ready to contribute to the legal domain.
