Summary

I am a dedicated and intellectually curious law student. I seek to leverage my unique blend of academic excellence, practical expertise, and diverse skills to make meaningful contributions in a challenging legal role. Currently, I am in my fourth year. I have gained hands-on experience through internships in IPR, contract drafting, and litigation support. Published articles demonstrate my strong research and writing abilities. I am adaptable, with a keen desire to continuously learn and grow. I thrive in dynamic team environments. I am proficient in English and Hindi. I can effectively communicate with diverse clients and stakeholders while upholding the highest ethical standards. I believe I can be a valuable asset and helpful contribution to your esteemed organization.
