ABOUT AND CAREER OBJECTIVE

I am a fifth-year law student at Amity Law School Kolkata. I have interned at an Advocate's Chambers, a Law firm and a Government Institution (RBI Legal Cell) in my four years of law school. I am interested in elocution and debating and have won several awards as a debater. I have recently co-authored and jointly won a national-level research paper writing and presentation competition conducted by RML National Law University, Lucknow. I have also received the runner-up trophy in the National Trial Advocacy Competition (IGNITAC) held by St. Xavier's University Kolkata with my team representing the University and had previously led a team to the semi-finals of the 6th KIIT National Trial Advocacy Competition achieving National Rank -4 in that competition.

I wish to build a career in the field of Intellectual Property Law. I am looking for an opportunity to hone my skills and learn extensively to be able to contribute to the aforementioned area.
