Experience

Awashya and Partners, Delhi

Legal Intern June 2024- July 2024

- At Awashya and Partners, as a Legal Intern, I gained valuable experience by drafting legal documents and writing research papers on various legal issues. I also had the opportunity to attend lectures that enhanced my understanding of legal principles and practical applications. This experience helped me refine my research and writing skills, contributing to my growth in the legal field.

Research associate August 2024- Present

- After being promoted to Research Associate at Awashya and Partners due to my strong research skills, I have taken on a leadership role, overseeing a team of interns working on an in-depth, well-researched paper. I continue to engage in extensive legal research, guiding the team in producing high-quality work for publication, which has further honed my research and management abilities.

Vis Legis Law Practise, Delhi

Legal Intern June 2024

- At Vis Legis Law Practice, Advocates, I engaged in extensive legal research and analysis, contributing to case preparations and legal strategies by thoroughly examining relevant laws, precedents, and legal documents. I honed my skills in drafting various legal documents, ensuring accuracy and clarity in legal writing, which are crucial for effective advocacy and case management.

The Indian Journal for Research in Law and Management

Legal Intern May 2024

- During my time at The Indian Journal for Research in Law and Management (IJRLM), I actively engaged in legal research, delving into complex legal issues and exploring various areas of law. This research culminated in the publication of several articles in the journal, allowing me to contribute to the academic discourse and share my insights with a broader audience. My work at IJRLM not only enhanced my research capabilities but also provided me with valuable experience in legal writing and publication.

Leadership & Activities

Meraki UN Millennium fellowship program

Member and Social Media Head Aug 2023- Present

- As a Member and Social Media Head at Meraki under the UN Millennium Fellowship program, I have led fundraising initiatives and organized impactful sessions on child sexual abuse, POCSO, menstrual health, and women's sexual abuse. My role also includes creating informative reels, managing our social media presence on platforms like LinkedIn, arranging outreach stalls, and actively participating in awareness sessions, all aimed at fostering greater understanding of these critical issues.

IDIA (Increasing Diversity by Increasing Access)

Sensitization Team Aug 2024- Present

- As part of the IDIA Sensitization Team, I have conducted law sessions to guide students in their preparation for law entrance exams. I assist them in mock tests, ensuring they understand key legal concepts and improve their chances of selection. This organization also offers interest-free loans to support students' education. By reviewing their mock tests and mentoring them, I'm honing my own skills as a future lawyer, helping shape the next generation of legal professionals.
